

Winthrop University

Proviso 89.92 - Fees and Fines

Authority

Winthrop University's authority to assess various fees and fines is in accordance with the South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 59, Chapters 101, 112 and 125, as well as Sections 89.9 and 89.12 General Provisions of the FY 2011-12 Appropriations Act. In addition, Title 34, Chapter 11 of the South Carolina Code of Laws authorizes a fine for returned checks.

Expenditure Purposes

Categorized as follows

Required Student Fees – Academic. Fees collected for costs directly associated with providing instruction to undergraduate and graduate students. These fees are dedicated to the direct cost of instruction for Faculty salaries and benefits, classroom and lab consumables, and technology services, as well as to bond debt service and student activities. These funds are the primary revenue source for the institution's educational and general operations.

Housing Fees. Revenues cover costs associated with housing services provided to the students residing in campus residence hall facilities. These costs include, but are not limited to, housing staff salaries and benefits, utilities, furniture, maintenance and repairs.

Meal Plan Fees. Revenues cover costs associated with food services provided to enrolled students residing in campus residence hall facilities as well as those students commuting to campus.

Health Fees. Revenues cover costs associated with health and counseling services provided to all enrolled students.

Other Student Fees. Revenues used to offset administrative costs associated with providing certain student services and programs. This fee category includes orientation, library, post office, application and transcript fees.

Parking Fees and Fines. Revenues used to offset the cost of parking services and campus security.

Library Fines. Revenues used to offset costs to replace library books and materials.

Payment Plan Administrative Fees. Revenues used to offset costs to administer student payment plan program.

Returned Check Charges. Revenue used to offset administrative and collection costs.

Judicial Fines. Revenues are used to offer student alcohol awareness programs.

MacFeat Laboratory School Fees. Revenues used to offset a portion of the costs administer the MacFeat Pre-School and Kindergarten Laboratory Program.

Joynes Conference Fees. Revenues used to offset the conference center operating costs.

West Center (Wellness Center) Membership Fees. Revenues derived from Faculty, Staff and Alumni memberships to offset a portion of the center's operating costs.
