Get Engaged with Campus Life at Winthrop University

Don’t exist on campus; get engaged with your academic experience at Winthrop University.

Dear Student,

Engagement means that you take an active role in living, learning and leading at your distinctive university. Transform. Your future depends on the choices you make now…

The sessions planned during Welcome Week, which is more than just a week, are designed to be informative, engaging and fun. Some sessions provide strategies and tips for academic adjustment, while others help you identify resources and opportunities for involvement on campus. Evening activities offer opportunities for entertainment and making new friends, as well as earning Cultural Event credit. We invite you to take part in all that Welcome Week has to offer and are so glad to have you here as a contributing member of the Winthrop community!

If the Office of New Student and Parent Programs can be of assistance in any way please feel free to call us at 803/323-2387.

Sincerely,

The Office of New Student and Parent Programs
Winthrop University
