

Policy Number/Title:	2.3.2.11 Academic Probation - Undergraduate
Effective Since:	09/01/2013
Last Revision Approved:	09/01/2013
Responsible Office:	Academic Council; Academic Affairs

1. Scope:

This policy applies to undergraduate students.

2. Definitions:

This section was intentionally left blank.

3. Policy:

The first semester a student's cumulative grade-point average falls below a 2.00, he or she is placed on academic probation.

Students on academic probation may not enroll in more than 15 semester hours. A student on academic probation whose semester grade-point average is 2.00 or higher is not suspended at the close of that semester even though the cumulative grade-point average remains below 2.00. The student may continue enrollment on academic probation.

The student is removed from academic probation at the close of a semester in which the cumulative grade-point average meets or exceeds 2.00.

Undergraduate special students are not subject to academic eligibility while in this classification.

A student's eligibility in a given semester cannot be influenced by the change of a grade awarded in any semester prior to the previous semester, except in the removal of an incomplete grade.

Records and Registration monitors student GPA at the end of each semester.

4. Procedures:

This section was intentionally left blank.

5. Resources:

This section was intentionally left blank.

6. History of Revisions:

09/01/2013	Minor Revisions
08/01/2012	Policy first established