3. Policy:

Winthrop University's Center for Career and Civic Engagement (CCE) is available to all students and alumni of Winthrop University. All services are free to currently enrolled students. To promote the success of our recent graduates we will continue to offer all student services free for one (1) year after graduation, including career counseling. After the first year, alumni will be eligible for web-based services that do not require the time of a career professional and/or career counseling services on a renewable fee-basis.

4. Procedures:

All alumni will continue to have free access to the following:

- Access to EAGLElink (web based job listings),
- Participation in our career and/or graduate school fairs,
- Participation at any of our career development workshops,
- Graduate school practice tests through our partnership with The Princeton Review,
- Career library resources, and

- Access to computers with internet access to assist in the job search

Alumni who have been out of school for longer than one year will have a $75 fee to access one of the following:

- 3 sessions of career counseling (including use of MBTI or Strong Interest Inventory)
- 3 sessions with a career counselor for job search assistance such as resume writing, interviewing, and/or job search techniques
