Academic Conduct

(Five voting members: Two faculty members elected by Faculty Conference (one for a 1 year term and the other for a 2 year term); 1 year term for two upperclass and/or graduate students; one faculty member appointed by Chair or Dean of the college in which a case originates to serve only for the designated case; 1 year term for nonvoting chair appointed by Academic Vice President)

(Committee of Academic Council)

This committee shall have jurisdiction in only two kinds of cases: 1) a case in which a student has accused a faculty member of violating stated course grading policies, and 2) a case in which a student has reason to believe that an error has been made in computing or recording his or her grade for a particular assignment or for the course. The committee shall not hear cases in which a student merely believes he or she has received unfair treatment.

Academic Council

Three-year staggered terms

Membership is by appointment by the Provost (3 seats, at-large); election from the Faculty Conference (3 seats); and election by the Faculty Assembly of each major academic division according to a formula. A student member (Chair, Council of Student Leaders or designee) serves a one-year term (student member falls under two-year rule). The Registrar serves ex officio as secretary. Chair is elected for 1-year term by council's voting members from voting members; chair shall have served at least one year on Academic Council. Elected members serve on the Financial Exigency Committee. Members may not serve more than two complete terms in succession. No person shall be eligible to serve as a voting member unless he/she has served two years as a faculty member immediately preceding service. Administrative officers are ineligible to serve except as Secretary. Department chairs are eligible to serve.

The Academic Council is responsible to the Faculty Conference for reports and recommendations concerning general education requirements, academic programs, policies, and regulations except those that would be peculiar to the graduate program.

Academic Freedom and Tenure

Two-year staggered terms / Nine elected members

One member shall be elected by the faculty assembly of each major academic division (5), and four members shall be elected at-large by Faculty Conference. All members of the committee must be tenured. While serving on the committee, a faculty member who brings a hearing or grievance matter before the committee must recuse him/herself from deliberation on that case. Administrative Officers and department chairs shall be ineligible to serve.

This committee shall be responsible for recommendations to the Faculty Conference with respect to policies on academic freedom and tenure, shall serve as a hearing committee for cases arising under the procedures and policies on academic freedom and tenure, and shall serve as a grievance committee in cases involving the granting of tenure. The committee also hears appeals in cases of post-tenure review. In its role as a grievance committee, it shall report its findings to the President and to the faculty member making the grievance. The President shall then evaluate the case in light of the committee's findings and shall render a decision. If the President decides adversely to the faculty member, the faculty member may appeal the decision to the Board of Trustees. While the Board of Trustees may choose to receive such an appeal on the basis of improper procedure only, the Board affirms that substantive judgments reside and end with the President (Board of Trustees Resolution 11-15-96).

Academic Integrity

The Academic Integrity Committee shall be responsible for the development, execution, and oversight of initiatives designed to foster academic integrity by all in the Winthrop University community. The committee shall also be responsible for reviewing current university policies related to academic integrity and sending recommendations for changes to those policies to Faculty Conference for approval. The committee shall then be responsible for communicating the recommendations that are approved by the Faculty Conference to the appropriate parties and working with those parties, as needed, to facilitate the implementation of those recommendations. The committee shall report its activities to Faculty Conference at least once per academic year

The committee shall have the following membership: one faculty member elected by the faculty assembly from each of the degree granting colleges, one member elected from the Library faculty, one member elected from university college faculty, as well as a student representative selected by the Chair of the Council of Student Leaders. The committee will also have the following non-voting, ex officio members: The Dean of Students, and one representative each from the Winthrop Athletics Department and the International Center.

The committee shall have the following membership: elected members of the Academic Council, the Vice Chair of Faculty Conference, and the Chair of the Committee on University Priorities. If there are fewer than two non-tenured elected members on Academic Council, additional non-tenured faculty shall be elected to the committee by a vote of the non-tenured elected members on Academic Council, additional non-tenured faculty of Faculty Conference to bring the total non-tenured membership to two. "Non-tenured is understood here to mean tenure-track faculty who have yet to earn and who not been denied tenure, here at Winthrop University. The election shall be conducted by the Rules Committee, with the Personnel Committee acting as a nominating committee. At least two non-tenured faculty members shall be nominated for each required position. Not more than one non-tenured member shall be elected from any major academic division. If, during the committee's existence, any of its non-tenured members gains or is denied tenure, then his/her membership on the committee will end, and a new replacement made by the above means. If a non-tenured member of the committee is newly elected to the Academic Council, s/he will continue as a regular member of the committee while serving.

If the President of the University declares a financial exigency or deems a financial exigency to be imminent, this committee shall be convened by the Vice Chair of the Faculty Conference. The committee shall participate in the emergency-related deliberations that take place above the level of the major academic divisions, including those relating to how academic programs and teaching service areas at Winthrop University are affected. The committee shall keep itself informed as to the financial position of the University by consulting at least once each semester with the President or designated agent and by other appropriate means. In addition, it shall keep itself informed on financial exigency developments in the academic world generally. At least once each semester, while it exists, the committee shall report directly to the Faculty Conference in assembly. The committee shall continue to exist until the President declares the financial exigency ended or no longer imminent.

Graduate Council

Three-year staggered terms

The Provost appoints 3 faculty members each from a different major academic division to serve at-large. Each academic division consisting of 5 or more Graduate Faculty Assembly members shall have one voting member elected by members of the academic division.

A representative elected by the Library Faculty Assembly shall serve as a member, without vote.

The Dean of the Graduate School shall serve as a member and as the Provost’s designee, without vote.

The graduate faculty member elected by Graduate Faculty Assembly to serve on the Committee on University Curriculum committee shall serve as a member, without vote.

2 graduate students are appointed to serve a one-year term, without vote. Appointments are made by the Dean of the Graduate School in consultation with respective college deans on a rotating basis.

A representative of the Graduate School office serves as an ex officio member and Secretary, without vote.

The chair is elected to a one-year term by the voting members, and must have served on the Council at least one year. The voting members elect a Vice Chair from among their own members each year.

Voting members may not serve more than two complete terms in succession; no person is eligible to serve as a voting member unless he/she has served 2 years as a grad faculty member at WU immediately preceding service, except for the Chair. Administrative officers are ineligible to serve, but department chairs are eligible to serve.

The Graduate Council is responsible to the Graduate Faculty Assembly for reports and recommendations on academic policies, programs, and regulations peculiar to the graduate program. The Graduate Council is responsible for calling special meetings of the Graduate Assembly and recommending changes in the organization and procedures of the Assembly to the Faculty Conference. The voting members of the Graduate Council also serve as the Graduate Petitions Committee.
