
Brooke Oxendine '14

Brooke Oxendine is an accomplished educator and administrator dedicated to fostering academic excellence and social-emotional growth in students. She holds an M.Ed. in educational administration from the University of South Carolina (December 2017) and a B.S. in middle level education with a concentration in English language arts and social studies from Winthrop (May 2014). During her time at Winthrop, she was an active member of Delta Zeta Sorority, president of the Winthrop Ambassadors, an Orientation Leader, Teaching Fellow and recipient of the Carolyn Senn Scholarship for Middle Level Educators.

Throughout her career, Brooke has held several roles in Richland School District Two and Lexington School District Two, starting as a middle school English teacher in August 2014 before transitioning to becoming a virtual middle school teacher in August 2020. Currently serving as an assistant administrator at Northside Middle School since June 2022, her responsibilities include overseeing school testing coordination, student records management, teacher evaluations and the implementation of intervention programs. Additionally, she actively engages with parents, students, and faculty, demonstrating her strong communication and leadership skills.

Outside of her professional commitments, Brooke has been involved in numerous extracurricular activities and initiatives, including serving as an assistant varsity swimming coach at Spring Valley High School and participating in educational programs like the Smithsonian American Art Museum Teacher Institute in Washington, D.C., and the Gilder Lehrman Teacher Institute at New York University.
