

Alumni-Elected Board of Trustees Candidate Mr. Isaiah Venning '95, '00

Isaiah "Reggie" Venning earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in 1995 and a Master of Business Administration in 2000. He currently works as a self-employed stock trader.

Venning recently served on the Rock Hill Community Relations Council, where he helped with the Martin Luther King Jr. Interfaith Prayer Breakfast, the Black History program and the National Race Equality Week committees. He is the former president of the School Improvement Council and the current treasurer for the PTO at Old Pointe Elementary School. He volunteers regularly at area schools, which earned him the district's Outstanding Volunteer Award in 2017.

On the state level, he represents the public sector on the Carolina Community Actions Board.

Active with the Kappa Alpha Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. with its finances and public service, Venning volunteers regularly at colleges, schools, churches and fraternity/sorority organization events to help educate individuals on how to save for their financial future and to get out of debt.

Venning has remained active with his alma mater. He received the 2021 Alumni Distinguished Service Award and currently serves on Winthrop's Board of Trustees as one of the two alumni representatives.

Venning and his wife, Krystal Davis Venning '96, '99, reside in Rock Hill with their children, Isaiah Jr. and Langston.
