Winthrop Earns Tree Campus Higher Education Distinction

Winthrop recently was awarded a Tree Campus Higher Education distinction by the Arbor Day Foundation for its commitment to promoting healthy trees and fostering conservation. The Tree Campus Higher Education program honors colleges and universities for effective urban forest management, and for engaging staff and students in its conservation goals. Winthrop achieved the recognition by meeting five standards: maintaining a tree advisory committee, carrying out a campus tree-care plan, setting aside dedicated funds for its tree program, holding an Arbor Day observance and sponsoring a student service-learning project.

My Winthrop Experience:
Ashlea Sovetts '13 and Alexandria Nunweiler '14

Can you remember the exact moment your life changed forever? Ashlea Sovetts '13 and Alexandria Nunweiler '14 can. The pair, who both majored in dance at Winthrop, had the chance to perform at the American College Dance Festival. The connections at that conference led to a summer abroad dancing and rooming together in Sorrento, Italy, at the Staibdance summer intensive. They have continued to partner on projects and recently received an Arts Project Support Grant from the S.C. Arts Commission. Read More>>
