

The College of Arts & Sciences

A brief introduction

Who

- 14 Departments
- 144 full time instructional faculty members
- 95 adjunct faculty members
- 29 staff members and administrators

What

- More than 1,330 courses offered
- 19 Undergraduate majors
 - 5 interdisciplinary
 - 7 transfer-friendly
- 9 Graduate programs
 - 1 interdisciplinary
 - 1 fully online
- 37 Undergraduate minors
 - 14 interdisciplinary
- 5 Secondary Education Programs

How

Undergraduate Research

- Abstract book published annually since 2003
- Featured in Undergraduate Research Offices and Programs: Models and Practices (2012, Council of Undergraduate Research)
 - Summer Undergrad Research Experience
 - Winthrop Initiative for STEM Educators
 - NSF-funded Chem-STEM program
 - ACS grant-funded Project SEED

Community & Civic Engagement

- Center for Public Opinion & Policy Research
- West Forum on Politics & Policy
- The Rocha Project (in Nicaragua)
- Home of The Latin Americanist journal
- Home of New Political Science journal

Where

Kinard Hall

- Psychology and Social Science (PASS) Laboratory
- Forensic Anthropology Laboratory
- Language Laboratory

Bancroft Hall

- Writing Center
- Mathematics Tutorial Center

Parker Building

- Converged Newsroom

Dinkins Hall

- Center for Public Opinion & Policy Research

Johnson Hall

- Television Studio
- Radio Station

Science Facilities

- Dalton Hall
- Sims Science Center
- Winthrop Farm

Engaging Public Schools

- AP Institutes in English, Mathematics, History, French, and Spanish
 - AIMS professional development for teachers
 - Model UN Conference (annually since 1976)

Student Achievements

- 5 disciplinary honor societies
- 5-year pass rate on the Dietetic Registration exam is 96% for Winthrop students (the national rate is 87%)
- SC Social Work Student of the Year (four times)
- SC Student Journalist of the Year
- Two Fulbright award recipients (2016 and 2017)
- Boren scholarship recipient (2016)
- NSF Fellowship recipient (2016)
- Rhodes and Truman scholarship finalists