

CHASING ICE

See how ancient mountains of ice in the Arctic are disappearing at a breathtaking rate. Chasing Ice is an award winning documentary of one man's mission to change the tide of history by gathering undeniable evidence of climate change. A lively discussion about climate change and photography will follow the screening led by Dr. Scott Werts (Geology) and Professor Phil Moody (Photography).

Wednesday, September 4, 2013

7 pm

Dina's Place

DiGiorgio Campus Center

FREE ADMISSION

Special thanks to National Geographic Channels for making this presentation possible.
For more information contact Dr. Marsha Bollinger: bollingerm@winthrop.edu

Sponsored by Winthrop University's Environmental Program and DiGiorgio Student Union.

