

Winthrop: Day by Day

A look toward campus life nearly a century ago, the 1919 film “Winthrop: Day by Day” shows scenes of student activities and the atmosphere of the early campus. The traditions that define Winthrop are explained and set the precedence for generations. Mrs. Gina Price White '83, the director of the Louise Pettus Archives, will be narrating the film. Afterword, a short Q&A will address campus history and the growth of campus within the last century.

11am to 12:15pm on November 13th, 2018 in Dinkins Auditorium

Co- Sponsored by the Louise Pettus Archives and Phi Alpha Theta
