Presented by: Dr. Patrick Guilbaud, Director, Extended Education and Summer School

This event will present and highlight some national, ethnic, and communal items and tendencies that are often at the root of the salient and manifest differences in workplace cultures around the world.

Dr. Patrick Guilbaud has worked and partnered with senior business and academic leaders in Oman, Senegal, and Haiti for at least five years. In addition, he was born in Haiti and lived in Senegal for four years. He will be able to share real life experiences and examples from these countries/cultures.
