Estimated MS/DI Program Costs 2026-2027

Updated information on tuition and associated costs is available at: https://www.winthrop.edu/student-account-services/fees-for-fall-and-spring.aspx#GradCampus. All fees are subject to change by semester.

1	Application Fee. A non-refundable application fee must accompany each new application to the University Graduate School. This fee is waived for those admitted to the MS DI.	50.00
2a	Online MS program tuition per semester ($699.00 per credit hour). Additional mandatory library fee per semester is $75.00.	7,497.00 75.00
2b	Online MS program tuition summer semester plus 1 credit hour for Practice Orientation Course Mandatory library fee is $75.00	5,831.00 653.00 75.00
2c	In-state certificate tuition per semester $653. per credit hour Does not include $75.00/semester mandatory library fee.	3,918.00
2d	Out-of-state certificate tuition per semester @ $986./credit hour Does not include $75.00 library fee.	5,916.00
2e	Environmental safety fee per semester (assessed during DI)	35.00
3	Laboratory fees per semester ($400.00 per DI course)	800.00
4	NFPE Modules Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics	99.00
5	HIPAA Training For Healthcare Workers	28.99
6	Required Textbooks	400.00
7	Parking pass for Winthrop campus per year (obtained through www.winthrop.edu)	100.00
8	Mandatory insurance, per year A. Professional liability > $1,000,000 each incident (paid by department) B. Personal health and accident* C. Personal vehicle insurance	Variable
9	Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Student Membership	58.00
10	Transportation, meals, and housing are the responsibility of the interns	Variable
11	Professional attire and closed-toe shoes (lab coat/scrubs/uniform if required by site)	Variable
12	Cost of drug screening(s), additional immunizations and/or criminal background checks, if requested by a rotation site, are the responsibility of interns	Variable
13	Submission of official transcripts showing date of completion of BS and MS degrees	Variable
14	Cost of processing required end of program paperwork for Certificate – Dietetic Internship	25.00

Financial Assistance: Interns who are enrolled as full-time graduate degree-seeking students may be eligible for financial assistance. Students wishing to apply should go to the Office of Financial Aid, 119 Tillman, 803-323-2189 or https://www.winthrop.edu/finaid/

*Interns may choose to pay a $240 fee per semester to use the Health and Counseling Services through the Center for Student Wellness on campus.