Nomination for the Louise Johnson Award
For a student who contributes significantly to the department/field through leadership roles and service

To Be Completed by the Nominating Faculty Member:

Name of Nominated Student: ____________________________________________________________

Name of Nominating Faculty Member: ______________________________________________________

Signature of Nominating Faculty Member: ____________________________________________________

To Be Submitted by the Nominating Faculty Member:
The nominating faculty member is asked to submit a letter of recommendation summarizing the student’s qualifications for the award. The letter may be addressed to the Psychology Faculty and should be submitted directly to Carolyn Boyette in the department office.

To Be Submitted by the Student Nominee:
Nominees are asked to submit a packet of support materials that will be considered by the selection committee and used to determine the award winners. This packet should contain a summary of the nominee’s accomplishments and may be in the form of a resume, vita, personal statement, or similar materials. These materials will be a critical factor in choosing the award winner, so students are encouraged to submit a complete and organized overview of their accomplishments. Support material should be submitted, along with this form to: Student Awards Nomination, Att: Mrs. Carolyn Boyette, Psychology Department, Kinard 135, Winthrop University, Rock Hill, SC 29733

To Be Completed by the Student Nominee:

Estimated Graduation Date: ________________________________________________________________

of WU Credit Hours Completed: __________________________________________________________

Transfer Credit Hours: _________________________________________________________________
(include the name of the institution or institutions)

Cumulative Grade Point Average: __________________________________________________________

Psychology Classes Grade Point Average: ____________________________________________________

I hereby certify that all information submitted in my nomination packet is accurate. I give permission for the selection committee to review my academic record in relation solely to my nomination.

_________________________________________  __________________________________________
Signature                                         Date