Charlotte Copperheads
Seek a Brand Ambassador Intern

Description:
- The Charlotte Copperheads seek a Brand Ambassador intern for the 2012 season. This position will lead you to be able to highlight your networking, socializing, and promotional skills within the Charlotte community. This is an opportunity to use your promotional and marketing skills at multiple events, games, and festivals representing a professional athletic brand. We are seeking to fill this position immediately. This is an unpaid internship.

Requirements:
- The ability to appropriately represent the Copperheads Name
- Be able to work within groups and on an individual basis at events and games
- Self motivated
- Must have a very enthusiastic, social, and outgoing personality to draw attention to our organization
- Be able to market our name through discussing with people, handing out flyers, and working different parts of events

Special Requirements:
- The ability to cover all games, events, festivals, and planned ambassador outings
- Education or experience in promotions, marketing, or anytime of brand representation
- Willingness to have a flexible schedule depending on sports schedules, game times, and game day operation / team meetings.

Apply Now:
- Email cover letter, and resume to intern@charlottecopperheads.com
- Please put Brand Ambassador in the subject line
- No phone calls please.