Marketing/Sales Support Internship

The Marketing/Sales Support Internship involves different tasks which are performed to boost the promotion and advertising of Spectrum Medical.

Duties and Responsibilities -

- Perform the work related to the creation and control of certain promotion techniques which will help to promote products of Spectrum Medical.
- The candidate is accountable for controlling goals of the organization, sales and customer support.
- Also accountable for assessing the industry techniques through studies.
- This job helps Spectrum Medical to synchronize and assess different financial aspect such as revenue, budget, expenses and dashboard screen of profit or loss.
- This job also demands making of industry techniques according to the industry features.
- Accountable for producing the list of a business's available service attractions and items.
- The professional also have the responsibility to sign up in promotional activities like industry events, ads.

Skills and specifications -

- Should have good managerial and communication skills.
- Must have knowledge about the current market characteristics.
- Must be a team player
- Must have good interpersonal skills.

Education and Qualifications –

TBD