

Sydney Evans, Student Representative
Report to Winthrop University Board of Trustees
Friday, June 5th, 2009

Hitting the ground running...

- ❖ University Committees
I am pleased to report that all student positions for the Winthrop University Standing Committees have been filled. Those names were submitted Wednesday, June 3rd, and are posted on the CSL website.
- ❖ Orientation
Within the next few weeks, campus will be buzzing with students here for Freshman Orientation.
- ❖ I-LEAD Conference
July 26-31st, Tripp Volk and I will be attending a leadership conference at the University of Colorado-Boulder.
- ❖ Homecoming
The Homecoming Committee is gearing up for our first Fall Homecoming November 9th-14th. CSL has decided on an "island" theme. Rose Connor (Homecoming Committee Chair) and I will be working this summer to build a schedule of events.

The Council of Student Leaders is in the process of planning for an exciting new year.

- ❖ Council Membership
We are pleased to welcome five new members to CSL. The remaining annual member positions will be filled with freshman/transfer students once the fall semester is underway.
- ❖ Retreat
This year's CSL retreat will be held Sept. 11th-13th at the Bald Mountain Lake Lodge on Lake Lure in North Carolina.
Topics of Discussion:
  - Pursue the possibility of working toward a smoke-free campus
  - Assess whether to keep or reform our current committees

As the new student representative to the Board of Trustees, I am looking forward to working with every single one of you this upcoming year, it is truly an honor. I am also very excited to have the opportunity to serve the student body. As Chair of CSL, it is my hope to improve communication, and get students engaged in all aspects of the Winthrop Experience in order to create a more inclusive community.
