

ALICE ISABELLA SULLIVAN

MEDIEVAL HERO & POSTMEDIEVAL VAMPIRE: DRACULA & HIS AFTERIMAGES IN HISTORY AND ART

DINA'S PLACE: DIGIORGIO CAMPUS CENTER

OCTOBER 27 6:30 P.M.

Alice Isabella Sullivan examines the transformations of the historical figure of Vlad III "the Impaler" (1431–c. 1476) into a postmedieval vampire as well as the ongoing fascination today with Dracula and his afterimages.

Alice Isabella Sullivan is assistant professor of medieval art and architecture and director of graduate studies at Tufts University.