

MISSION

The Academy of Music strives to provide quality musical instruction to the communities surrounding York County, South Carolina, and to serve as a professional training lab to foster a lifelong appreciation of music.

PROGRAM FAQs

•How to register?

Registration can be submitted via email, through the mail, or may be dropped off in the music office. The online registration form can be found at www.winthrop.edu/cvpa/music/academy-of-music.aspx. Or, you can capture the QR code here. --->

•Is there a registration fee?

Yes, only new students are required to pay a one-time registration fee of $50.00. This fee is due with the first installment payment at the time of registration.

•What is the cost of tuition?

Tuition is based on several variables including instructor level, the length of the lesson, and the instrument of study. For full details please refer to the tuition chart on the inside panel of the brochure.

•When will lessons be?

Lessons are set up between you and the instructor. Once you have been assigned an instructor, the instructor will contact you directly to set up the lesson day and time.

•Where are lessons held?

Lessons are held on Winthrop University's campus in the Conservatory of Music. Lessons are not permitted to be taught off campus. Your instructor will inform you where your lessons will take place.

LESSONS OFFERED

Brass | Composition | Guitar | Percussion
Piano | Strings | Voice | Woodwinds

We offer traditional, private weekly lessons to all ages! Lessons are taught by our talented team of instructors made up of University faculty, graduate students, and undergraduate music majors studying at Winthrop. All University faculty and graduate students hold degrees in their instrument, and have previous teaching experience. Our undergraduate student instructors are majors in the field in which they teach. These students are carefully selected by their professors to teach in the Academy program, and are supervised by the administration and faculty.
