By Kevin Kling based on the book by Kevin Henkes

Directed by Stephen Gundersheim

Based on the beloved children's book by Kevin Henkes, a young mouse named Lilly learns to deal with the problems that many children face. It is a tale that emphasizes the importance of being considerate, apologizing when in the wrong, and forgiving others when they apologize. This exuberant Theatre for Young Audiences show is perfect for children pre-K through 4th grade and for audiences of all ages.

ArtsWinthrop Spotlight

The College of Visual and Performing Arts at Winthrop University is pleased to announce that Gabrielle Tull has been selected as our inaugural CVPA Director of Arts Education. We are excited that Gabrielle will serve the institution and community in this important leadership role.

"I am so thrilled to serve in this role to propel the visibility and vitality of our arts education programs from Winthrop to our surrounding communities," stated Gabrielle.

At Winthrop University, Art Education students can earn a BA degree in Art, Music, Dance or Theatre, with K-12 teaching certification! We pride ourselves on having a 100% job placement! Graduates of our program have found success teaching art in public/private schools, working in museums and arts organizations throughout the state and region. Others continue to graduate studies to become arts administrators, professional artists, art therapists, or teachers in higher education.

Alumni News

Ashley Jensen, Alumna '18 is serving as guest scenic designer for next month's production of Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse.

Ashley Jensen grew up in York, SC. She earned her BA in theatre design tech from Winthrop University 2018. In 2021, she moved to Columbia, SC to pursue her MFA in scene design.

Her credits include over a dozen theatre productions and several commercials for local companies, such as the SC Education Lottery. In her spare time, she loves to spend time with her dog, craft, and travel. Now, Ashley is a member of the USC Aiken faculty and is excited to return to Winthrop for this project to inspire students and instill in them a love for theatre, nurturing the next generation of storytellers and designers.

EXPLORING JAPAN

STUDY ABROAD THIS SUMMER!
MAY 11- 19, 2025

VISIT TOKYO AND KYOTO!

Register for this unique opportunity to learn about Japanese visual and performing arts that includes an 8-day study abroad trip to two major cities in Japan.

Contact Tomoko Deguchi for more information.
deguchit@winthrop.edu

Have you ever wanted to visit Japan? Now's your chance to study abroad there this summer!!

This is a unique opportunity to learn about Japanese visual and performing arts that includes an 8-day study abroad trip to two major cities in Japan.

Course topics will include: Japanese traditional performing arts such as Noh theatre, Kabuki theatre, and Bunraku puppet theatre; Japanese traditional instruments and musical aesthetics; music used in Japanese festivals; an historic survey of visual arts and architecture including ceramics, printmaking, textile arts, sculpture, painting, calligraphy, and garden designs; and contemporary trends in anime, graphic novels, and cosplay.

Students will also study how these visual and performing arts are deeply rooted in Japanese traditional religions such as Shintoism, Buddhism, and Zen philosophy.

A significant portion of the course content will be delivered on site, as the class will spend eight days, from May 11-19, 2025, visiting Tokyo and Kyoto. Students will visit art museums, Japanese gardens, attend Kabuki and Noh theatre performances, etc., as well as learn the Tokyo metro system and enjoy washoku (Japanese traditional cuisine).

Primary leader is Tomoko Deguchi (deguchit@winthrop.edu), Tomoko Deguchi will teach the Japanese traditional music and performing arts portion of the course as well as introduce the students to Japanese social culture and food.

Alice Burmeister (burmeistera@winthrop.edu), will teach the Japanese traditional visual arts portion of the course. Both instructors will participate in the 8-day study abroad trip to Japan.

The class meets Tuesdays at 6:30-7:45 PM.

Winthrop's Department of Design now offers a Bachelor of Design in Game Design! Explore more about the degree program here.
