VISIT TOKYO AND KYOTO!

Register for this unique opportunity to learn about Japanese visual and performing arts that includes an 8-day study abroad trip to two major cities in Japan.

Contact Tomoko Deguchi for more information.
deguchit@winthrop.edu

Have you ever wanted to visit Japan? Now's your chance to study abroad there this summer!!

This is a unique opportunity to learn about Japanese visual and performing arts that includes an 8-day study abroad trip to two major cities in Japan.

Course topics will include: Japanese traditional performing arts such as Noh theatre, Kabuki theatre, and Bunraku puppet theatre; Japanese traditional instruments and musical aesthetics; music used in Japanese festivals; an historic survey of visual arts and architecture including ceramics, printmaking, textile arts, sculpture, painting, calligraphy, and garden designs; and contemporary trends in anime, graphic novels, and cosplay.

Students will also study how these visual and performing arts are deeply rooted in Japanese traditional religions such as Shintoism, Buddhism, and Zen philosophy.

A significant portion of the course content will be delivered on site, as the class will spend eight days, from May 11-19, 2025, visiting Tokyo and Kyoto. Students will visit art museums, Japanese gardens, attend Kabuki and Noh theatre performances, etc., as well as learn the Tokyo metro system and enjoy washoku (Japanese traditional cuisine).

Primary leader is Tomoko Deguchi (deguchit@winthrop.edu), Tomoko Deguchi will teach the Japanese traditional music and performing arts portion of the course as well as introduce the students to Japanese social culture and food.

Alice Burmeister (burmeistera@winthrop.edu), will teach the Japanese traditional visual arts portion of the course. Both instructors will participate in the 8-day study abroad trip to Japan.

The class meets Tuesdays at 6:30-7:45 PM.
