I. Approval of Minutes for April 19, 2019 Faculty Conference
Faculty will vote to approve the minutes from the 4/19/19 and 8/16/19 at our next Faculty Conference which is scheduled for 9/27/19.

II. Report from the Chair, Dr. Adolphus Belk, Jr.:
   A. Dr. Belk began promptly at 2:00 p.m. and welcomed the faculty to a new school year. He stated the University held its first faculty meeting in 1899 and 120 years later, the body looks a lot different. The thing Dr. Belk will look forward to the most in doing this job is working with and advocating for all of us.
   B. Dr. Belk introduced Drs. Tenisha Powell, Associate Professor of Early Childhood Education as secretary, and Jennifer Dixon-McKnight, Assistant Professor of History as Parliamentarian.
   C. Recognition was given to 13 faculty members who earned tenure, 8 faculty members who were promoted to the rank of Associate Professor, and 4 faculty members promoted to the rank of Professor at the conclusion of the last academic year.
   D. At the invitation of the outgoing Faculty Conference chair, Dr. Michael Lipscomb, and the Board of Trustees, Dr. Belk attended the June 27-28 board retreat, and there were a number of actions that were taken at the meeting.
      1. The South Carolina Legislature made $2 million available to public colleges and universities across the state if those institutions kept tuition flat or raised tuition no more than 1 percent. Winthrop was in that category, with a tuition increase of 0.5 percent.
      2. The Legislature also made money available for pay raises for certain faculty and staff. Though that was not an unfunded mandate, it was a partially funded mandate where 25 percent of the money is coming from the state. That means Winthrop has to come up with the rest.
      3. Projections are suggesting that new student enrollment will likely increase. The overall student enrollment, however, may remain flat or slightly decrease because some students are graduating early. Even so, we can be better as an institution with retaining our students from the freshman to the sophomore year and throughout.
      4. There was conversation about recruiting more students that have the ability to pay, paying particular attention to middle- and upper-income students.
5. Overall tuition for undergraduates was increased by 0.5 percent, about $38.00 per semester for in-state students, $75.00 per semester for out-of-state students. Tuition for campus based graduate programs increased by 1 percent.

6. The Board approved implementing a GMAT waiver criterion from requiring a 3.5 overall GPA and a 3.75 GPA in the major to a 3.0 overall GPA and relevant work experience. This change puts the MBA program in line with institutions that still require the GMAT, but provide a waiver option.

7. Dr. Mahony received a “Meets Expectations” approval rating from the Board.

8. Dr. Belk ended his report with remarks on understanding the importance of recruiting students from all ranges of the income scale. However, at the same time, he suggested that we cannot lose sight of the professional and ethical obligations we have to our current students, as a public university located in the state of South Carolina.

Dr. Michael Lipscomb, outgoing Chair of Faculty Conference, made a brief announcement stating he is aware that the Faculty Conference webpage is not updated with the most current reports and information, but they are working over the next couple of days and weeks to get the site updated.

III. Report from the President, Dr. Dan Mahony:
A. Dr. Mahony gave the numbers as of today, August 16, knowing that the numbers are fluid and can change by 100-200 students in either direction from this point forward. Freshman class is at 1,072. That is up 8.8 percent from last year at this same time, and up 20 students from where we were in 2017. This is the second year in a row we have exceeded EAP’s projection on new student enrollment given the scholarship dollars we have available. Transfer students are also up about 5.4 percent at this juncture. Graduate student enrollment is at 791, compared to 691 a year ago. Overall, the numbers are favorable and Dr. Mahony thanked everyone as he realizes it is a campus-wide effort.

B. Because every student has a different financial aid package/situation, we will not understand where we are with this year’s budget until probably mid-September. Therefore, when building the budget for this year, part of what we are trying to do is be more conservative or cautious on the front end. Last year, we ended at $20 million in the unrestricted net position. This past year, we just figured it will go up to over $22 million.

C. Dr. Mahony emphasized that retaining students is critically important to our budget situation and that should be our major objective. We are still about 3 to 4 years away from paying down a majority of the building debt from the DiGiorgio Center and the West Center.

D. The City of Rock Hill now has a free bus system. There is a mobile app available for faculty, staff, and students to download to follow the bus route schedules. The ridership is almost already at what they projected. The goal is about 4,100 riders a week, and last week it was 3,900—and that’s without Winthrop students. The president is hoping that as the ridership and utilization increase, the hours of service will also increase.

E. The construction on Cherry Road will be long, but the plans over the next couple years are extraordinarily exiting. Dr. Mahony thinks there are going to be more things for both faculty and staff to do close to campus. So, while the current development will be a pain, the long term outcome will hopefully be really good.

F. We have about two years to go before submitting our SACS Report (in 2022). This is a critically important process for the institution, and it involves everyone across campus. It seems like a long way away, but it will go by very fast and there is a lot of work to do. There are really two parts: Compliance Certification and our Quality Enhancement Plan. Thank you in advance for all that you will do to help us through this process.

IV. Report from the Provost/Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Adrienne McCormick (Report in Appendix I)

A. The first 30 days as Provost have been an adventure for Dr. McCormick. She is partnering with the fiscal year 2020 Budget Development, closely monitoring enrollments, working on restructuring in the Provost’s office, and moving her son in, who is starting his first year at Winthrop.

E. A few of the 2019/2020 action items include completion of the work of the Task Force on Tenure and Promotion Protocols, implement post-tenure faculty development plan (Faculty Relief), support pre-college program development that can increase revenues and enrollment, and review all academic affairs policies and procedures. V. Committee Reports

A. Academic Freedom, Tenure, and Promotion, Dr. Michael Lipscomb

1. Dr. Lipscomb spoke more to the tenure and promotion protocol. At the last faculty conference, the task force presented a list of recommendations, five of which were voted on and approved unanimously. One of those was making the pre-tenure review mandatory for the portfolio. The others will be sent to a committee to review specific recommendations. He will be working with Dr. McCormick to finalize the membership and charge of that committee.

B. Rules Committee, Dr. Zach Abernathy

1. All the recommendations of updated tenure and promotion language have been voted on and forwarded to the Provost Office and will hopefully be reflected online as soon as possible.
2. He’s received Bylaws changes from two colleges, the College of Business Administration and the College of Education, so those will be forthcoming at the next faculty conference.
3. Given what was voted on, the Rules Committee is working on a transition plan to change the rules membership to a “by college” election rather than just an “at-large” election to ensure equal college representation.

Question was asked by Mr. Bellantoni as to if there are language changes that were made at the university level that would then require changes at the college level, would it need to be sent back through for approval. The answer was yes.
VI. Office of Computing and Information Technology, Mr. Patrice Bruneau

A. All the Mac Labs should now have brand new equipment

B. Direct, regular classroom technology has been refreshed in Sims, Withers, and Johnson. New computers are touchscreen and no DVDs. Please contact the Help Desk if you need an external DVD reader.

C. No more green or blue book. They are working on having the information searchable on the website.

D. Adobe—if you need it installed, then call the Help Desk. There is a certain number of licenses, but hopefully anyone who needs one can have one.

E. Microsoft is pushing for cloud-based apps. Windows 7 support expires in December, so if you are still using that version, you will be contacted within the next 3 to 4 months for an upgrade of a machine or software.

F. Every October, cyber security training will occur so look out for this annual event. Be vigilant about scams like ransomware or imposters asking you to buy iTunes gift cards.

G. One new thing on the horizon is Multi-factor Authentication. Now when you log on you just need your username and password, eventually, you’ll need a username and password AND then you’ll get a text on your phone that will generate a unique number to also enter as an added layer of protection.

H. Patrice asked for your continued patience as they have lost several key people in the department. They have been replaced with eager and energetic people, but they are still new and learning.

Question was asked would we still need to update our password every 90 days like we do now. The answer was hopefully that time frame will be able to be extended due to the multi-factor authentication.

VII. Registrar, Office of Records and Registration, Ms. Gina Jones

A. Gina wanted to remind returning faculty and alert new faculty about the new S/U policy, which was revised this past year and voted on by this body. Undergraduate students now may choose five S/Us on classes throughout their undergraduate careers. They are still limited to one per semester, EXCEPT for freshmen in their very first semester. They may choose to take two courses on the S/U basis that semester.

B. She also wanted to let everyone know about the Faculty and Staff Services webpage. It contains very valuable information like the Academic Council and the CUC minutes and agenda, a link to the curriculum application system and a Degree Works tutorial.

VIII. Unfinished Business: There was no unfinished business.

IX. New Business: There was no new business.
X. Announcements

A. Tim Drueke reiterated Convocation is Monday, August 19, at 11:00 at the Winthrop Coliseum (a new time and location). Please refer to the email from Dr. Shelley Hamill, sent last week, for more details.

B. Stacy Martin, COE, is still collecting regalia for faculty to borrow and use to participate in Convocation and graduation. There will be a rack located at graduation to allow faculty to use/swap out for both ceremonies.

C. Dr. Kelly Costner, COE, Chair of Friends of Dacus Library announced the Fall Fundraiser featuring Vivian Howard from “A Chef’s Life” on PBS on Thursday, Nov 7th at 6:30p.m. Dinner and event is $40 (friends/members), $50 for nonmembers and before reception and book signing (with book) is $150.

D. Fine Arts Announcement: MFA students will host a reception for the Works in Progress exhibition on this Thursday, August 22, 2019 at 6:00p.m. at Lewandowski Student Gallery.

E. Dr. Gloria Jones emphasized the new 2 S/U policy for first semester freshman and to really let students know this is not a negative thing and can in fact save their LIFE scholarship. She also invited everyone to the Coliseum to welcome the new and transfer students to the Winthrop Community tomorrow, Saturday, August 17 at 2:30p.m.
