

Graduate School Foundation Funds¹

Graduate Studies Scholarship Fund (Fund 1256)

The Graduate Studies Scholarship Fund is a need-based fund at the graduate level to provide scholarships, emergency support, or books/supplies to graduate students at Winthrop University.

Graduate School Travel and Research Fund (Fund 1791)

This fund provides discretionary support for the work of graduate students at Winthrop University. The purpose of the fund is to provide support for travel, research, presentations, or professional developments for graduate students related to their discipline or program of study specifically. $500 sends a student to a regional conference; $1000, to a national conference.

Graduate School Excellence Fund (Fund 1714)

This fund was established to provide discretionary support to The Graduate School in its promotion of excellence in all aspects of graduate education at Winthrop, including but not limited to: support of students, special projects, travel or materials.

¹ For information about how graduate students are selected and each fund is disbursed, contact Dr. Jack DeRochi, dean of the Graduate School, at 803/323-2204 or derochij@winthrop.edu.
