

RESOURCES to explore health careers

www.explorehealthcareers.org includes news, career information, internship listings, profiles of various professionals

iCollaborative, at www.mededportal.org/icollaborative/ is a service of MedEdPORTAL offered by the AAMC, provides a platform for educators and learners to share educational innovations that are being developed, implemented and tested within the health professions.

www.naahp.org organization exclusively dedicated to the needs of the health professions advisor. This website contains a wealth of information on a variety of HP careers, including a post-baccalaureate list under student resources and summer opportunities for students.

www.training.nih.gov/programs/postbac\_irta IRTA/CRTA programs provide opportunities for recent college graduates who plan to apply to health professions schools

www.bls.gov/ooh/ Occupational Outlook Handbook contains job descriptions, education & training requirements, job outlook, earnings, and links to professional associations

www.aamc.org contains information on: admissions, financial aid, minority/disadvantaged programs, the AMCAS medical school application, the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT), MD/PhD programs, and other services provided through AAMC. You can find links to MCAT registration, as well as the online MCAT Student Manual.

www.ama-assn.org/go/becominganmd career information, answers to Frequently Asked Questions and links to other sites.

www.amsa.org you and students can find membership information, student reviews of medical schools, a premed guide, and helpful material on diversity issues.

www.chirocolleges.org you will find information about the profession as well as links to chiropractic colleges and the application service ChiroCAS.

www.adea.org contains a wealth of information for advisors, dental and pre-dental students, and for those who are working in the dental profession.

www.ada.org has career & admissions information, as well as a description, sample problems and registration instructions for the Dental Admission Test (DAT).

www.nsgc.org you and your students can find career information, news, links to genetics counseling programs and more.

www.aupha.org offers resources for future and current students interested in Health Administration, faculty and program directors.

www.naturopathic.org provides a naturopathic doctor locator, state licensure information, and links to naturopathic schools as well as the application service NDCAS

www.aacn.nche.edu website you will find career & admissions information, links to nursing programs, and to the application service NursingCAS

www.aanp.org provides information on education, research and conferences, as well as links to nurse practitioner programs

www.nutrition.org provides career information, as well as links to professional publications like The Journal of Nutrition. Under the Professional Development tab, you will find links to graduate programs.

www.aota.org The Resource for Educators section under the Education and Careers tab, has information for those considering occupational therapy as a profession. You can also find links to programs and the application service, OTCAS.

www.opted.org website, you and students can also find links to optometry programs, OptomCAS, pre-optometry clubs and the Optometry Admission Test (OAT). To find the “Applicants and Advisors Resources” section, look under the About Optometric Education tab, then click on Professional O.D. programs.

www.aacom.org contains career and admissions information, links to the American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine Application Service (AACOMAS) and a wealth of other resources for students and advisors. A downloadable version of the Osteopathic Medical College Information Book is also available.

www.accp.org has career and admissions information, as well as links to pharmacy schools, the application service PharmCAS, the Pharmacy College Admissions Test (PCAT) and the journal Academic Pharmacy Now

www.pharmacist.com is also a resource for pre-pharmacy students, with links to the journals like Pharmacy Today and the Student Pharmacist Magazine. Descriptions of pharmacy jobs may also be of interest to students planning for their careers.

www.apta.org you will find information about practice and patient care, career pathways and links to physical therapy programs and the application service PTCAS. While looking over the website, take about 10 minutes to watch the inspiring video, “You Can Be Me: A Career in Physical Therapy” featuring physical therapists, physical therapist assistants and physical therapy students talking about what is important to them.

www.paeaonline.org you can find news, career information and descriptions of the Central Application Service for Physician Assistants (CASPA). You may want to view the presentation on the benefits of CASPA to gain a better understanding of the application service. The most useful tab for pre-physician assistant students and advisors may be PA Focus on the far right. Here you will find a wealth of relevant admissions information as well as the current Physician Assistant Virtual Chat Session. T

www.aapa.org includes news, career information, and resources for finding out about state licensing for Physician Assistants

www.aacpm.org provides career and admissions information, and links to podiatric programs and the American Association of Colleges of Podiatric Medicine Application Service (AACPMAS). Students can find a podiatrist to shadow via the Contact a Mentor tab. The FAQs tab has answers about what podiatrists do, curriculum, applying and podiatric student characteristics

www.aspph.org is rich in resources for advisors and students, including information on programs, areas of study, curricula, and a downloadable version of Milestones in Public Health. You will also find links to schools of public health and for virtual fairs that allow participants “to speak with admissions representatives, current MPH students, and SOPHAS administrators.

<https://www.publichealthdegrees.org> “is a resource dedicated to researching educational opportunities within public health.” The site provides useful information on MPH programs—including information about online programs and application/admission requirements.

www.aavmc.org you will find easily identifiable resources for students and advisors, including career & admissions information, as well as links to veterinary programs and the Veterinary Medical College Application Service (VMCAS)

www.onehealthinitiative.com is a movement to link human, animal and environmental health you will find information about vector-borne infections, as well as Outbreak Reports, zoonotic diseases and links to publications.

Acupuncture and Oriental	Pharmacy
Council of Colleges of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine	American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy
Allopathic	Physical Therapy
American Medical Association Association of American Medical Colleges	American Physical Therapy Association
Audiology	Physician Assistant
American Academy of Audiology	American Academy of Physician Assistants Physician Assistant Education Association
Chiropractic	Podiatric
Association of Chiropractic Colleges	American Podiatric Medical Association Careers Guide American Association of Colleges of Podiatric Medicine
Dental	Public Health
American Dental Association American Dental Education Association	American Public Health Association Association of Schools of Public Health
Health Administration	Veterinary
Association of University Programs in Health Administration	American Veterinary Medical Association Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges
Naturopathic	Allied Health Professions

American Association of Naturopathic Physicians

Association of Accredited Naturopathic Medical Colleges

Association of Schools of Allied Health Professions

American Medical Association, Careers in Allied Health

Nursing

National League for Nursing

American Association of Colleges of Nursing

Anesthesiologist Assistants

American Academy of Anesthesiologist Assistants

Occupational Therapy

American Occupational Therapy Association

American Occupational Therapy Foundation

Audiology

Audiology Foundation of America

Optometry

American Optometric Association

Association of Schools and Colleges of Optometry

Genetic Counseling

The World of Genetics

Osteopathic

American Osteopathic Association

American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine