Title: Assistant Professor of Spanish

Major Responsibilities:
• Teach all levels of Spanish (language, literature and culture) from the elementary level through the graduate level, with primary emphasis on undergraduate teaching
• design assessment instruments for the department and compile/interpret data
• serve on departmental, college and university committees
• organize and direct study abroad programs
• advise undergraduate and graduate students
• sponsor student groups (Spanish Club, honor society, etc.)
• represent the department at recruitment and orientation activities

Qualifications: Ph.D. in Spanish. ABDs will be considered only with assurance of completion prior to August 12, 2013 (e.g., a letter from the dissertation director).

Employment Conditions: A nine-month, full-time, tenure track appointment. Teaching load: four courses per semester with summer teaching possible as a separate contract. Salary dependent upon qualifications and experience.

Position Availability: August 12, 2013

Application Deadline: November 1, 2012
Applications received after the deadline may be considered if an acceptable candidate has not been identified. Select candidates may be contacted before the MLA Convention to arrange opportunities to discuss the position in advance of a possible on-campus interview.

Application Procedures:
1. Individuals wishing to apply for this position should immediately make their interest known to:
   spanishsearch@winthrop.edu or
   Chair of the Spanish Search Committee
   Department of World Languages and Cultures
   237 Kinard Hall
   Winthrop University
   Rock Hill, SC 29733
   Phone 803/323-2231

   When possible, the committee would like to reduce hardcopy correspondence. Please include an e-mail at which you can be contacted in reference to materials associated with the search process.

2. The following materials should also be submitted to the above address:
   a) letter of application
   b) current curriculum vitae
   c) names, addresses, e-mail addresses and phone numbers of at least three professional references
   d) a completed Winthrop application packet (available for download from www.winthrop.edu/hr)
   e) all graduate transcripts*
   f) statement of teaching philosophy
   g) evidence of teaching excellence (e.g., student evaluations)
   h) evidence of scholarly productivity
   i) evidence of professional service

*Note: Unofficial transcripts may be submitted at the time of initial application. An official transcript of the terminal degree will be required before an offer of employment can be extended.

Applications may be submitted electronically to spanishsearch@winthrop.edu.