Title: Dietetic Internship Director/Instructor of Human Nutrition, Department of Human Nutrition

Major Responsibilities:
• Serve as Dietetic Internship Director and as liaison between the department and the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; prepare annual, five-year, and self-study reports for ACEND and update faculty and preceptors on changes that may have an impact on the internship.
• Provide vision in planning, developing, and implementing dietetic internship curriculum and rotations which meet accreditation standards.
• Coordinate affiliation agreements and assessment activities for the dietetic internship.
• Teach in areas of expertise at the undergraduate and graduate levels as appropriate and assist with supervision of dietetic interns.

Qualifications:
• Master’s degree in human nutrition or a related discipline.
• Registered Dietitian credential and qualifications for licensure in South Carolina; minimum of five years in dietetic practice.
• Demonstrated organizational skills and evidence of ability to coordinate internship rotations and organize and maintain records for the accrediting body.
• Evidence of successful administrative experience and leadership skills.
• Demonstrated ability to work effectively with students, colleagues from a variety of backgrounds, and dietetic preceptors in rotation sites.
• Evidence of teaching excellence at the college level.
• Evidence of effective scholarship and service consistent with the academic rank.

Employment Conditions: A nine month, non-tenure track position; rank of instructor. If the successful applicant has a doctorate, a tenure-track appointment at the rank of assistant professor would be considered. If the successful candidate is ABD at the start of employment, appointment will be a non-tenure track position as instructor with consideration of conversion once the doctorate is complete. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications.
