WINTHROP UNIVERSITY

NOTICE OF JOB VACANCY

April 25, 2013

POSITION:  WEB DEVELOPER/APPLICATIONS ANALYST
(ACCREDITATION, ACCOUNTABILITY & ACADEMIC SERVICES)
(Class Code AJ45/Information Resource Consultant II)

BAND:  Band 06 \Level 02

STARTING SALARY:  $39,464 - $50,000 minimum per year; actual salary will be commensurate with qualifications

VACANCY:  #59/13

Minimum Training and Experience:
Bachelor’s degree and two years of related experience required. Experience using Oracle and/or Microsoft SQL Server, PL/SQL or SQL, HTML, XML, web services, ASP.net, JavaScript, and WebFocus desired. Experience with applications against relational databases highly desired. Experience in dealing with authentication/authorization issues is preferred. Demonstrated experience in applications design and development preferred. The combination of training and experience may be considered.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:
Proficiency in Windows desktop environment. Familiarity with and understanding of university business concepts and academic departmental requirements for faculty and student services. Ability to effectively communicate verbally and in writing. Excellent organization/problem solving/analytical skills. Excellent and demonstrable troubleshooting and diagnostic skills. Strong ability to effectively communicate with faculty, staff and students.

Major Duties:
Reporting to the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Web Developer/Applications Analyst is responsible for analysis, development, implementation, maintenance and support of system components and applications for customers. Designs/develops web pages and applications using a variety of programming languages and web development platforms; develops web interfaces to various data sources; establishes new database design layouts; analyzes and understands application business rules and requirements to provide application design, development, implementation, configuration/consulting services to end users; acts in consulting capacity to programming staff, end users and upper management; maintains technical currency; provides technical recommendations; troubleshoots/diagnoses web application and database problems; provides support to other Accreditation, Accountability and Academic Services staff and clients. Performs other related duties as required.

To apply, access www.jobs.sc.gov to submit an on-line application no later than May 8, 2013.

Winthrop University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.