

Karen Kedrowski, Winthrop University – Pink Ribbons and Breast Cancer Awareness

The Academic Minute, Oct. 30

Low Pay, High Stress, Second Jobs. Could You Afford to be a Teacher in S.C.?

The State, Oct. 28

Mentions the Center for Educator Recruitment, Retention and Advancement (CERRA), housed at Winthrop.

Several Tenants, Hotel Chain Announced at Rock Hill's Knowledge Park Project

The Herald, Oct. 27

Similar story ran in The Charlotte Business Journal.

Mentions Winthrop's proximity and involvement in the University Center deal.

York County Assessor's Office to Review Roddey Property Documents

The Herald, Oct. 27

Mentions the mayoral debate that took place at Winthrop.

Abbeville District Names Fowler as Chief Administrative Officer

The Index-Journal, Oct. 26

Julie Fowler '85, '88, also serves on Winthrop's Board of Trustees.

FAMIS Students Win \$24K in Scholarship Money at Charlotte Ballet Festival

SVL Free News, Oct. 26

Also ran in The Statesville Record & Landmark.

Mentions that MacKenzie England and Logan Potts received scholarship offers from Winthrop. Also mentions that representatives from Winthrop attended and observed performances.

Mayoral Debate: Roddey, Gettys Bring Focus on Rock Hill Finances, Dispute Over Taxes

The Herald, Oct. 25

Mentions that the debate took place at Winthrop.

Nowhere to Go But Up for Winthrop Women's Basketball

The Herald, Oct. 24

Pat Kelsey 'Bullish' on His 2017-18 Winthrop Men's Basketball Team

The Herald, Oct. 24

Chamber Members Reflect on Intercity Trip

The Summerville Journal Scene, Oct. 23

Mentions Winthrop's involvement with the Knowledge Park project.