

In South Carolina, Access to Food and Access to Healthy Food Aren't the Same Thing
South Carolina Public Radio, Feb. 16

*Quotes Jessie Hoffman, assistant professor of human nutrition.

‘Touched the Lives of So Many’: Retired Winthrop Music Professor Dies From COVID
The Herald, Feb. 15

*Picked up by MSN.

USC’s Strom Thurmond Center Could Be Renamed After Building History Panel Adopts New Rules
The Post and Courier, Feb. 12

*Mentions Winthrop’s Tillman Hall.

*Similar story ran in The Greenville News.

Winthrop Receives State Grant for Future Teachers
CN2, Feb. 11

Bellamy Predicts FUSE District Will Serve as ‘Community Gathering Space’
Gaston Gazette, Feb. 11

*Mentions similar projects near Winthrop.

Johnsonville School District Names Three Superintendent Finalists
SC Now, Feb. 10

*Rod Ruth currently attends Winthrop.

CSUF Rocket League Gets the Ball Rolling in Collegiate Esports Invitational
Esports For Us, Feb. 9

*Mentions Winthrop’s team.

Three Greenville County Scouts Join Inaugural Female BSA Eagle Scout Class
Greenville Journal, Feb. 9

*Grace Guerrero attends Winthrop.

Southside Virginia an Increasingly Appealing Place to Retire
Chatham Star Tribune, Feb. 8

*Quotes Edward Randle, assistant professor of accounting.

Black History Month Employee Feature: Meet Ronata Rogers
NBA.com, Feb. 8

*Rogers is a 2017 and 2018 graduate.

Crowdfunding Campaign Wants to Connect Black S.C. Patients With Black Health Care Providers
The Post and Courier, Feb. 8

*Clara Benson currently attends Winthrop.