

University

Colleges must now comply with SC bathroom law. Here's how it will be enforced

The State, Aug. 8

For the first time this fall, public colleges in South Carolina will be required to take reasonable steps to ensure that all restrooms and changing facilities afford users privacy from members of the opposite sex.

Rock Hill projects: New dorm at Winthrop and revamp of former movie theater

Rock Hill Herald, Aug. 7

Winthrop has applied to the city of Rock Hill for a site plan review to build a 4-story residence hall on campus.

Winthrop University targets fall start for new residence hall as part of larger project

Charlotte Business Journal, Aug. 6 (behind paywall)

USC celebrates record \$358M in fundraising, other SC colleges also set records

SC Daily Gazette, Aug. 6

Winthrop joins USC, Clemson and the College of Charleston in having record fundraising years.

Faculty/Staff

South Carolina's Republican Senate nominee will likely be pro-Israel, but no match for Lindsey Graham

Jewish Telegraphic Agency, Aug. 10

Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon said the replacement of the late U.S. Sen. Lindsey Graham won't have the platform and power to be as hawkish as Graham.

Our View: Change in S.C. will look different in 2026

Charleston City Paper, Aug. 6

Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon said current young folks are anti-institutional and fed up with hyper-partisan politics.

A Senate seat, a sudden death and a sprint campaign: SC revisits 1954

Greenville News, Aug. 6 (behind paywall)

Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon gave an historical perspective on the Senate seat.

Early voting starts in South Carolina GOP Senate primary

WJCL, Aug. 5

Political Science Professor Scott Huffmon talked about early voting underway for the U.S. Senate seat.

SC man chronicles diabetes experience with book of poetry inspiring him to find joy

Queen City News, Aug. 4

English faculty member Ephraim Scott Sommers has a way with words. When life leaves him grasping for them, he often writes song lyrics.

Examining Sen. Lindsey Graham's Political Legacy

The Big Deal, Spectrum News, Aug. 1

Political Science Professor Scott Huffman talked about the upcoming special primary to replace Graham.

Financial Aid Available Beginning in August to Elevate Program Students

WRHI, July 31

Melissa McCartney, dean of the School of Graduate, Continuing, and Online Education, said the addition of financial aid marks a milestone for Elevate.

Winthrop Poll

South Carolinians are feeling the squeeze with groceries, utilities

Bluffton Today, Aug. 5

The Winthrop Poll shows that SC residents rate the economy as bad.

46 Democrats voted for the Laken Riley Act. For some, it's a liability.

19th News, Aug. 3

The Winthrop Poll is cited in the president's handling of immigration.

Alumni

WATCH: Big South Student-Athlete Alumni Series - Chad Steele

Big South Conference, Aug. 6

Chad Steele '97 talked about his student-athlete experience at Winthrop.

Senator Lindsey Graham: Faithful in Duty, Steadfast in Heart

The Times of Israel, Aug. 5

Arlene Bridges Samuels '68 remembers the late U.S. Sen. Lindsey Graham.

Other News

A League of Their Own: Colleges Launch Flag Football for Women

Inside Higher Ed, Aug. 3

CofC launches path to a bachelor's degree for skilled trade grads

Post and Courier, July 31