

University

SC Passes $14.5 B Budget that Cuts Taxes, Improves Roads and Freezes College Tuition
SC Daily Gazette, June 26

Updates on the 2024-25 state budget.

An $8.3 Billion Win for South Carolina Students

Columbia Today, June 17

The S.C. Education Lottery article includes a photo of a Winthrop student.

Athletics

Inside the Surprising Rise of Cornhole

CBS, June 29

Feature on the rise of cornhole and a scholarship for high school students to Winthrop.

Clemson Softball Gets Big Transfer Commitment

The Clemson Insider, June 20 (Sports Illustrated)

Former Winthrop Pitcher Reese Basinger will transfer to Clemson to play her fourth year.

Alumni

Who is Ben Kohles' Wife, Lindsey? The Health Advocate of 34YOA PGA Golfer

EssentiallySports, June 28

Ben's wife, Lindsey '15, has worked in several health care jobs as a dietitian.

"She Put Something in All of Us:" Legendary York SC Hoops Coach Arsonia Stroud Dies at 72

Rock Hill Herald, June 27

Coach Arsonia Stroud '74 is remembered as a humble coach who brought out the best in her players.

Carolinas Credit Union League Announces Inaugural Members for Standalone PLR Board

CUInsight, June 27

Keith Wilson '94 is among seven people named to a new board for its for-profit subsidiary.

York Schools Announce New Roles

WRHI, June 21

Seberina Myles '86, '88, '00, becomes the interim principal at York Middle School; Clay Bryant '19, '20, will serve as assistant principal intern at York Middle.

John Collins – Head Coach, UNF

University of North Florida Athletics (Florida Times-Union – story behind paywall), June 20

John Collins '17 leaves Presbyterian College to become the head men's tennis coach at University of North Florida.

Future students

CORNHOLE: Virginia Teenager to Attend Winthrop on a Cornhole Scholarship
Bristol Herald Courier, June 28

Colson Clary will play for Winthrop's cornhole team. Please note that this is an academic scholarship, not an athletic scholarship.

In Other News

Clinton College Aims for Record-breaking Fall Enrollment Despite Spring Storm Damage
Rock Hill Herald, June 28

Efforts by Clinton to fix damages from the April hailstorm and to beef up enrollment.