

Athletics

Strange Reshuffles at Winthrop University – Gucc107 Returns to the Main Lineup After Just Two Days of Inactivity

Bo3.gg, March 14

Esports player Andrew Gutnichenko moves to the bench and then returns to play.

Winthrop to Host Rock the Winds Gaming Tournament Next Month at Carowinds

Rock Hill Herald, Charlotte Observer, March 13

Popular esports tournament returns to Carowinds for the second year.

Faculty/Staff

Arts Alive Shines Spotlight on Richmond County Students' Creativity

The Richmond Observer, March 14

Music Ed Program Coordinator Julia McCallum conducted a recent all-county middle school chorus performance.

Alumni

School Social Worker Pens Children's Book

Gaston Gazette, March 15

Gaston County Schools Social Worker Heather Pierczynski '08 has written a holiday-themed children's book.

Dorman Volleyball Coach Paula Kirkland Selected for National High School Hall of Fame

Spartanburg Herald-Journal, March 12

Paula Kirkland '80 excels at coaching a sport that she never played.

Other News

Turning a Textile Mill into a Modern Mixed-Use Destination

Commercial Property Executive, March 12

The nearby Knowledge Park district may be the largest adaptive-reuse project in the state.

SC Budget Could Give Homeowners a \$500M Property Tax Break, Boost Pay

SC Daily Gazette, March 11

Under the House proposal, anyone making $66,667 or less would have their pay increased by $1,000. Those making more would receive a 1.5% salary increase.