

University

York County businesses are doing more to connect workers and jobs. Here's how

Rock Hill Herald, March 16

*Three years ago, York County business leaders set out to reimagine the way people learn about, train for and find jobs. The Winthrop Honors College is one of its examples to attract students to growing job markets.

Students scramble as new growth-driven housing policy pushes Winthrop upperclassmen off campus

Post and Courier, March 16 (behind a paywall)

*Jarad Russell, director of residential living, talked about a housing policy change for the fall.

Winthrop ensemble to join Downtown Jazz Jam on April 12

Matthews-Mint Hill, March 15

*Swingin' Eagles Jazz Ensemble will join Downtown Jazz Jam on April 12 at Slow Play Brewing.

Alumni

LMS educator Audrey Bell named Regional Teacher to Watch by SCAMLE

GoUpstate, March 13

*Audrey Bell '10, an eighth-grade math teacher at Laurens Middle School, was selected as a Regional Teacher to Watch by the SC Association of Middle Level Education.

Straight Talk: 03-13-26 Summersby Okey, Habitat for Humanity and Dr. Stephanie Barnette-Restore Imagined

WRHI, March 13

*Summersby Okey '13, '15, talks about the services of Habitat for Humanity in York County.

A Rock Hill City Councilman steps down, and a familiar face inserts her name as a candidate to fill the seat

WRHI, March 12

*Anne Poag Harty '87 will run for the Rock Hill City Council Ward 2 seat as Councilman Brent Falkenberry plans to move to Charleston.

An Avett Brothers band member just wrote a book ... on John Quincy Adams?

Charlotte Observer, Rock Hill Herald, March 10 (Similar story in the Post and Courier)

Bob Crawford '03 put aside his instrument to write a book about one of the nation's founding sons and sixth president.

Other News

A possible compromise following veto of bill that keeps payments to college athletes secret

SC Daily Gazette, March 16

The General Assembly rushed to pass legislation to keep from public view how millions of dollars of public funds will be divided among college athletes.

Memphis FC names Daniel Ridenhour head coach

Daily Memphian, March 12

Former Men's Soccer Head Coach Daniel Ridenhour named as inaugural coach for the Memphis FC soccer team.