

Eagles Scored on the Field, But Do You Know How They Did in the Classroom?

The Herald, May 20

Rock Hill Striking New Note With Its Own Symphony Orchestra

The Herald, May 19

Mentions Eugene Barban, professor emeritus of music, and Elda Franklin, professor emerita of music.

Teachers and State Employees Told to Vote For Leaders Who Will Make Them a Priority

The Post and Courier, May 19

Quotes Julie Marshall, adjunct professor.

‘I Was a Train Wreck’: Rock Hill Students Discuss Battle With Mental Health Issues

The Herald, May 18

Interviews student Coleen Vaughn and quotes Melissa Reeves, associate professor of psychology.

Revitalization of a Rock Hill Textile Mill Gaining Traction

WBTV, May 18

Mentions Winthrop’s involvement in University Center.

New Attitude Performing Arts Center Expands in Locust

The Weekly Post, May 17

Erika Hogan is a 2008 graduate.

Waccamaw’s Montenery Named Player of the Year

South Strand News, May 17

Montenery will play baseball for Winthrop.

Wesleyan Grad Jalen Hodges Wins Big South High Jump Championship

The Gwinnett Daily Post, May 17

Mentions student Jalen Hodges.

Who is Winthrop Basketball’s New Mustachioed Triple-Double King?

The Herald, May 17

Liberty Moving to ASUN Conference For 2018-19 Season

Augusta Free Press, May 17

Mentions Winthrop is in the Big South Conference.

Eastern Carolina Community Foundation Supports the Pee Dee Through Scholarships

SC Now, May 15

Mentions that Eleanor Vereen will attend Winthrop.

Kannapolis Charter Gets New Principal

Independent Tribune, May 15

Profiles Gabr’l Stackhouse ’07, ’11.