RESIDENCE HALL CONTRACT/LEASE

This contract/lease is an agreement between the university and the individual student. It is for the period of contract/lease as specified in Article I, Section 1 of Terms and entitles the student to the use of university housing accommodations only in such a manner as set forth herein and in the Student Handbook. This contract/lease may be terminated only under the conditions specified herein.

PLEASE READ BEFORE SIGNING. PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO ARTICLE II – HOUSING FEES, REGARDING CANCELLATION DEADLINES.

Students and their parents or guardians are urged to read carefully the terms and conditions of this contract/lease. If the student is under 18, a parent or guardian must sign this contract/lease along with the student. The university agrees to provide accommodations under the conditions of this contract/lease. Please sign and return this paper contract/lease only if completing a paper housing application and send it to the Department of Residence Life – 237 DiGiorgio – Rock Hill, SC 29733. The contract/lease you are about to sign is a legally binding contract for BOTH the fall semester and the spring semester. You may print a copy of this contract/lease for your files at the web site www.winthrop.edu/reslife/forms.

Frank P. Ardajo, Vice President for Student Life

I have read and agree to the terms of this contract/lease.

ARTICLE I. Terms

1) Purpose of Contract/Lease. One academic year consisting of two semesters, from the first day residence halls officially open fall semester until the last day of the spring semester.

2) Residency Requirement. All first and second year students are required to live on campus unless they live within a 50-mile radius with a parent or legal guardian; are 21 years of age; married; a single parent or a veteran. Exemption requests may be made by using the form found on the following Web site: www.winthrop.edu/reslife/forms. Students, who are enrolled and have not been exempted from the residency requirement, will automatically be billed for a semester’s housing fees and subject to disciplinary sanctions.

3) This contract is for a space in the residence halls and not for a specific bed.

4) The student must have a meal plan for each semester. The meal plan is optional for senior students.

5) The student must enroll for a minimum of twelve (12) undergraduate or nine (9) graduate hours each semester to be eligible for a space in university housing. A part time student may be granted permission to live in university housing as long as the student is not in violation of any university and/or conduct regulations.

6) The student must have a health form on file with health services.

7) The university reserves the right to refuse admission or readmission to the student residence halls, if the student fails to meet university admission requirements or if the student is in violation of university regulations, or has a criminal conviction by legal authorities.

8) The university will terminate this contract for the following reasons: failure to pay the room rent as set forth in Article II, Section 1; the student’s health renders the student unsuitable for group living; the student’s behavior; or a violation of the Student Conduct Code (see Student Handbook) and/or any housing policies and regulations as stated in this contract, whether such policies and regulations be now in effect or later enacted due to due notice.

ARTICLE II. Housing Fees

1) This contract/lease binds a student to pay housing fees from the first day the residence halls open for a full academic year, both fall and spring semesters.

2) Housing fees are assessed on a semester basis.

3) Contract/Lease Cancellation Prior to the Start of the Academic Year. If written notice of cancellation is received by the Department of Residence Life on or before:
   a) Fee Payment Deadline, as published by the Cashiers Office web site winthrop.edu/cashiers - If notice of cancellation is received by the Department of Residence Life on or before this date, the contract is cancelled with no additional charge.
   b) Day After Fee Payment Deadline: The contract is legally binding, and students are obligated to pay housing fees for the semester unless they fail to enroll.
   c) Upon check-in, sign a contract addendum and room condition report accepting responsibility for room furnishings and equipment.

4) Contract Cancellation After the First Day the Residence Halls Open Each Semester of the Academic Year.
   a) The contract may be terminated after the start of each semester only for the following reasons: withdrawal from school; transferring; marriage; no more than four weeks prior to the wedding date); or, circumstances determined by the university to be sufficiently extenuating beyond the student’s control as to warrant cancellation (documentary evidence will be required).
   b) Any student qualifying for cancellation under paragraph 4(a) will forfeit the prorated amount for the days that housing is held in reservation by that student. No refunds will be made after the 7th week of the semester.

5) Contract Cancellation at the End of the Semester.
   a) The contract/lease may be terminated after the end of the first semester without penalty for the following reasons: graduation; withdrawal from school; transferring; inability to continue enrollment due to a failure to meet academic requirements; completion of graduate school requirements; failure to enroll for the second semester; a second semester co-op, or participation during the second semester in anything required by the university that takes the student away from the main campus for an extended period of time. The contract may be cancelled at the end of the first semester with a $300 contract cancellation charge for the following reasons: marriage; residency requirement exemption request; or circumstances determined by the university to be sufficiently extenuating beyond the student’s control as to warrant cancellation (documentary evidence will be required).
   b) (If 4(a) or 5(b) does not apply and you are exempt from the residency requirement, the contract may also be cancelled at the end of the first semester by paying a buyout charge equal to 50 percent (50%) of the first semester’s rental fee.

ARTICLE III. Obligations of the University

Winthrop University agrees:

1) To provide the use of the facilities from the published date that residence halls open, except during official recesses, until the published date that residence halls close.

2) To assign the student a bed as published in the Housing Application and/or Housing Addendum.

3) To assign a room according to the date of receipt of the completed housing application. Whenever possible, requests for a specific building, floor, and room number will be honored but cannot be guaranteed.

4) The university reserves the right to require room assignment changes to enhance community living, for disciplinary sanctions, space consolidation, and other reasons considered necessary or advisable.

ARTICLE IV. Obligations of the Student

The student shall:

1) Exercise reasonable care in the use of the facilities; care for his/her room, including properly ventilating and cleaning suite bathrooms; abide by all Winthrop University rules and regulations; whether such regulations be now in effect or later enacted, and accept penalties for violation of all Winthrop University rules and regulations. Infractions of rules and regulations may be dealt with administratively or by the Winthrop Student Conduct Code.

2) Upon check-in, sign a contract addendum and room condition report accepting responsibility for room furnishings and equipment.

3) When occupancy is terminated, obtain written room clearance from the Resident Assistant. The Resident Assistant, who will inspect the room and relieve the occupant of responsibility for the room, its furnishings and equipment, or recommend an assessment against the occupant for damages and missing property. Failure to properly checkout with the Resident Assistant and the residence hall office will result in a fine of $25.

4) Pay the cost of replacement or repair for any breakage or damage to the student’s room, its fixtures or appurtenances, fair wear and tear excepted, and a pro rata share of cost for any damages to communal property when the responsible person cannot be determined.

5) When withdrawing from the university, check out in the Department of Residence Life and turn the key in to the residence hall office.
(6) Not assign this contract, sublet the assigned room to another party, or change rooms without advance approval of the Department of Residence Life. A fine of $25 will be levied for changing rooms without permission. Students are expected to move within 24 hours of the date on the move slip. Failure to do so will subject the student to a $25 fine.

(7) Not alter or repair electrical equipment or fixtures, which belong to the university. Defects in electrical equipment must be reported to your Residential Learning Coordinator, Residence Director or the Hall Office.

(8) Not keep pets in residence halls except for fish. Visting pets are prohibited.
